THE NATIONAL PARTNER NETWORKS ARE LEADING CHILD RIGHTS NETWORKS IN THEIR COUNTRY

What do they do?

- Influence and support Eurochild’s advocacy priorities at an EU level
- Monitor implementation of EU policies, legislation and funding and offer crucial insight into national developments
- Coordinate within countries to put children at the centre of national policy making
- Offer a representative voice of the children’s rights sector in their country

National Partner Networks represent over 2000 national organisations working for children’s rights across Europe
